Guest of Honour

Kye Whyte

Kye Whyte (born 21 September 1999) is a British male BMX racer. Kye was the silver medallist at the 2020 Summer Olympics and also competed in the fourteenth series of Dancing on Ice in 2022.

Whyte started riding BMX at the age of three at Brixton BMX Club in Brockwell Park, South London. Later, alongside his brothers Daniel and Tre Whyte he attended Peckham BMX Club as a youngster. The club was co-founded by the brothers' father Nigel. Tre and Kye would both become members of the Great Britain Cycling Team, with Kye becoming the eighth member of the Peckham club to do so. Kye suffered a crash at just thirteen years old, shortly after first joining the British Cycling talent group, spending five days in an induced coma and unable to ride for a year.

Since then, Kye has won a European championship silver medal behind teammate Kyle Evans in Glasgow in 2018; a first UCI BMX Supercross World Cup victory in Manchester, April 2019. And on 20 June 2021, he was named in the British team for the delayed 2020 Tokyo Olympics, where he won a silver medal in a close contest with the Netherlands' Niek Kimmann.
